Scottish Sustainable Development Goal (SDG)
Reporting Working Group Meeting: People and Prosperity
9.30am, Monday 10th December 2018
Standard Life Aberdeen (next to H&M on 7th floor),
40 Princes Street, Edinburgh, EH2 2BY

Hosted by the Scottish Environment Protection Agency (SEPA),

ICAS (The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland) & Standard Life Aberdeen

AGENDA

09:30   Registration, tea & coffee

10:00   Welcome
- ❖ Sandy MacDonald, Head of Corporate Sustainability, Standard Life Aberdeen

10.10   Keynote: Human Rights & Equalities – Think Global Act Local
- ❖ Jamie Livingstone, Head of Oxfam Scotland

Keynote: Modern Slavery – Issues for Scotland
- ❖ Alister Bull, Training and Development, Hope for Justice

Q&A to speakers

10:50   Refreshment break

11:00   Breakout session 1
- ❖ Chair: Cath Preston, Head of Innovation, SEPA
  - What SDG targets are material to Scottish business for equalities and modern slavery?
  - What kind of action can Scottish business take?

12:15   Lunch

13:00   Integrated reporting & the value of multiple capitals
- ❖ Andrea Coulson, Head of Department Accounting and Finance, Strathclyde University

13:15   Breakout session 2
- ❖ Chair: Cath Preston, Head of Innovation, SEPA
  - How can practical action on equalities and modern slavery be built into business models?
  - How can enterprises go beyond regulation in terms of measuring and reporting on success?

14:45   Refreshment break

AGENDA continued

14:55   Scottish National Performance Framework & SDGs
- ❖ Victoria Loughlan, Team Leader, Outcomes and Sustainable Development Goals, Scottish Government
- ❖ Paul Bradley, Project Manager, Open Government and Scotland's SDG Network, Scottish Council for Voluntary Organisations

15:10   Scottish SDG Reporting Working Group – Terms of Reference
Discussion & agreement
- ❖ Chair – Sandy Macdonald, Standard Life Aberdeen

15:40   Breakout sessions summary
Next steps & thanks
- ❖ Anne Adrain, Head of Sustainability and Assurance, ICAS

16:00   Close